

María Eugenia Tusquets

The Grife and Escoda gallery is presenting María Eugenia Tusquets, whose style is characterised by intense anímico content.

She puts the accent on the human aspect of her work, doing paintings which are serious and full of authenticity.

The artist's personality in this respect takes on a singular relief, especially for the extraordinary sensitivity revealed in her work.

